Father Edward Martin

Fr Edward Martin (Ed) was born in Nottinghamshire and grew up in a small village near Newark. After attending school in Tuxford where he met his wife Lesley, Ed studied for a BA in Politics at Hull University before working for several years at the Benefits office in Lincoln. Ed and his family made the move to Mirfield in 2000 where he studied for the priesthood at the College of the Resurrection.

Ordained in 2003, Ed served his curacy in Carrington on the outskirts of Nottingham before being appointed as Priest in Charge of Chapel St Leonards and Hogsthorpe. He then moved to become Rector of Scartho and, more recently, has served as Vicar of both St Augustine's and St Andrew's in Grimsby.

Ed and Lesley have two grown-up children, which allows ample room for Ed's growing collection of pre-Victorian Bibles and Prayer Books, Georgian teacups and 18th-century chairs. Ed's love of antiques saw him feature as a contestant (with another priest from the diocese) on BBC One's Bargain Hunt, where they emerged victorious after losing only slightly less money than their competitors. Ed is an enthusiastic runner, competing in local half-marathons and 10k runs and likes to relax with a classic novel by Thomas Hardy or Jane Austen.

Ed has said that he will be sad to leave Grimsby after 10 years there but that he is tremendously excited about the opportunity to serve as Vicar, Warden and the Church of England Ministry Experience Scheme lead at Edenham.

WITHAM ON THE HILL CHURCH AND SCHOOL ESTATES

Witham on the Hill Church and School Estates have 2 vacancies for trustees. This is open to anyone living or working in the parish of Witham on the Hill. The charity is responsible for the upkeep of the St Andrew's Parish Hall, helps maintain the fabric of the church and gives grants for educational purposes. We hold 2 meetings per year, in March and in October. If you are interested please contact the clerk at Edenham Regional House at edenhamoffice@gmail.com.

This charity is able to make grants to those residents of the Manthorpe, Toft, Lound and Witham on the Hill who are undertaking courses at colleges and universities and also those who are on apprentice schemes. If you would like to make an application please write a letter setting out the nature of your course and the reasons for seeking a grant. Please send it to: The Clerk to the Trustees, Witham Church and School Estate, c/o The Vicarage, Church Lane, Edenham PE10 0LS.

VOLUNTEERS REQUIRED PLEASE! Volunteers needed to help clean St Andrew's Church, Witham on the Hill, on a rota basis. The more volunteers the less often you will have to clean. Cleaning can be done on any day of the week to suit you. All cleaning materials provided. If you are willing to help, if only once every couple of months, please contact Karen Lawrie: karenlelawrie@icloud.com All help gratefully received. Thank you!

QUIZ, SUPPER & PUDDING NIGHT in St Andrew's Parish Hall Witham on the Hill on 20 October raised £227.60 for hall maintenance funds. The quiz, set by Kevin O'Hara, was great fun and after a tie break was won by Lynne O'Hara's team! Janet Kirkwood and team provided an excellent supper of quiches and salad. The puddings were raspberry meringue, pear and almond tart, raspberry mousse, choc sponge with choc sauce, apple and nut sponge, carrot cake, and chocolate tart. The winning pudding was the excellent chocolate tart – a joint effort by the Denial family, with a perfect short crust pastry (no soggy bottom!) and a smooth chocolate filling. Thanks to all who helped make the evening such a success.

MACMILLAN COFFEE MORNING St Andrew's Parish Hall, Witham on the Hill, on 10 November raised over £500. Thank you from Jean Croft to

POPPY APPEAL Geg Atter wishes to thank the Five Bells, Andrew Wilson and Edenham school for all their hard work with this very important collection.

The total collected this year came to £415.50. This was a record combined effort from Edenham and Grimsthorpe. We also thank Geg for his efforts!

EDENHAM CHRISTMAS COLOURS The colour for this year's Christmas decorations in church is Blue, So, please can we have blue or white candles that will last for at least 3 services and blue decorations where possible. There will be a flower arrangement list in church nearer the time. Please come and help decorate for Christmas and put your name down. Thank you.

REMEMBRANCE SUNDAY On Remembrance Sunday the St Andrew's church bells rang out half muffled to start the tribute at 9.45am. The ringers also included the Reverend Keith Dennison and his wife, from Stamford. The remembrance service was led by the retired Rev Dennison with great reverence and dignity. The choir from Witham Hall Prep School sang beautifully. A team of buglers from the school played the Last Post very evocatively (fighting a very blustery gale!) and two children from the school laid poppy wreaths at the base of the memorial. Andrew Harris read out the list of the fallen from this parish during the Great War. At 6.15pm Andrew Harris led evening prayer, which included a very moving rendition of Wilfrid Owen's poem Dulce et Decorum Est. Rob Braddock played the Last Post in Church and at 7pm the church bells "Rang Out for Peace"; the ringers were Jane Clark (treble), Karen Lawrie (2nd), Debra McMillan (3rd), Ian Lawrie (4th) & Francis Templeman (tenor).

The nationwide tribute, organised by Bruno Peek LVO OBE OPR, included lone pipers at 6am, the lighting of beacons at 7pm, and at 7.05pm 100 town criers throughout the UK and countries around the world joined together in an International Cry For Peace Around the World. What a wonderful tribute to everyone who, in any way, suffered during the "Great War". Not that any war is great but, at the time, it was wishfully thought to be the war to end all wars.

Commemoration of WWI in the Parish of Witham-on-the-Hill

The First World War saw 65 men and 1 woman from the area join the armed forces, mostly the Army but also the Navy and Royal Flying Corp. Of these, 15 died (23%). The following monthly extract is from the booklet compiled as a record of the war as seen by the parishioners at the time, in date order and in the language, grammar and sometimes spelling of the period. There is a heavy religious theme in all the entries by the Vicar, Canon Leonard Cooley, not surprising for a clergyman of the time. Entries are unedited, as it gives an interesting insight into the thinking of the time, from a social history view point.

The booklet was produced by Witham-on-the-Hill Historical Society (Incorporating Manthorpe, Toft and Lound). The Society is a registered charity - No. 1078244

December 1918

Thanks be to God. - With unspeakable joy and gratitude, we ascribe the praise to Almighty God. Even now it is difficult to realize how mighty is the victory which we have won, with what sweeping completeness we have attained every single object for which we drew the sword. Almost as suddenly as it began, so did it end "the cruellest and most terrible war which has ever scourged man-kind." The agony of these four awful years is over, and we are free. We know it is the Lord's doing, the whole nation knows it, and has acknowledged it in one great spontaneous outburst of thanksgiving, as inspiring as it was wonderful.

Our own Thanksgiving Services were inspired by the greatest heartiness and fervour. The flags and wreaths of laurel with which the church was hung fittingly emphasized the great occasion, and never were more heart-felt praises sung within its ancient walls. The special form of thanksgiving issued by the two Primates was used, and the Te Deum was solemnly sung before the principal Eucharist, and after Evensong.

The Fallen. - Amidst all our rejoicing our thoughts have turned instinctively to our gallant dead who have given their lives for us. Let us raise a worthy memorial in their honour. Our offerings on Thanksgiving Sunday have already been set apart for this purpose.

The Children had a great day on November 12th. Arrayed in the weirdest of fancy costumes they paraded the parish in procession, in company with all the teachers, bearing flags and banners. It was a happy idea of Mrs. Metcalfe's thus to impress upon their minds the greatness of the occasion, which they will never forget. A collection was made on the round, which totalled £7, and was given towards the soldiers' Christmas gifts.

Social. - The farmers' committee organized a most successful whist drive and dance on November 20th for the Boys' Christmas gifts fund. The proceeds amounted to £12, and further subscriptions brought the total up to £53. It is proposed to send £1 to every soldier whose home is in the parish, as was done last year.

The Prisoners of War Fund is now closed. We tender our heartiest thanks to the many monthly subscribers, and to Miss I. Brudenell for acting as collector.

A Prophecy Fulfilled. - The Vicar's prediction of the end of the War, which was widely known for many months past, has now become a matter of such curious interest that he ventures to add a word on the subject. It was in February last that, late one evening, when using the war intercessions and thinking when the end might be, a sudden premonition came into his mind with such extraordinary clearness that he took down his diary then and there, to record the date before it should pass from his memory. It was no mere guess, but a vivid suggestion from without. The impression which it made upon him was so great that he consistently maintained his belief, of which he made no secret, that in spite of all appearances to the contrary, the

END OF THE WAR

GERMANY SIGNS OUR TERMS & FIGHTING STOPPED AT 11 O'CLOCK TO-DAY.

ALLIES TRIUMPHANT.

FOCH AND LLOYD GEORGE TELL NEWS THAT SENT THE WORLD REJOICING.

BRITISH BACK AT MONS!

The following historic announcement, which means that the world war has come to an end at last, was issued by Mr. Lloyd George to the nation at 10.20 this morning:—
"THE ARMISTICE WAS SIGNED AT 5 a.m. THIS MORNING, AND HOSTILITIES ARE TO CEASE ON ALL FRONTS AT 11 a.m. TO-DAY."

The following message was sent out to-day through the wireless stations of the French Government.

FULL ARMISTICE TERMS

EVACUATION TO THE RHINE AND BRIDGEHEADS FOR ALLIES.

U-BOATS TO SURRENDER.

GUNS HANDED OVER AND BATTLE SHIPS DISARMED.

REPATRIATING PRISONERS.

The terms of the Armistice signed by the German plenipotentiaries were made known to the House of Commons this afternoon by Mr. Lloyd George. The following items include provisions of limited duration, Belgium.

war would be over on or about November 10th. Why he, of all people, should have been vouchsafed this revelation (if revelation it be), or what is the explanation of this phenomenon, are questions which he is unable to answer. Nevertheless, the facts are exactly as stated.

January 1919

A year ago. - In the Magazine for January, 1918, we wrote the following words : "In all probability there are even greater sacrifices and anxieties in store for us than any we have yet experienced. Still, the darkest hour is that which comes before the dawn, and it is our belief and hope that this is to be the year of victory and peace." Those words of ours have come strangely and wonderfully true. There was first of all the terrible set-back in the spring, the blackest and most anxious period of the whole war, and then the glimmering of the dawn in July, growing ever brighter until the glorious noon-day of victory was reached in November. For the year that is coming, now that the clouds which have oppressed us for long are lifted, we wish every happiness to all our readers.

A SEARCH FOR INFORMATION ON HENRY OSBORN - SWINSTEAD

A message from John & June Edwards - john.june@lineone.net

We are researching the family history of Henry Osborn who is June's great, great uncle.

He was born in Burton Le Coggles on 2 April 1894, the son of William and Charlotte. His 1/2 sister Katherine (1893) moved to Wales and married William Henry Davies, their daughter, Sussannah, married Wilfred Heyward who is June's grandfather.

Henry emigrated to Canada in 1913, joined the Canadian Army Medical Corps in 1916 and was killed in France on 7th August 1918 and buried in Hangard Cemetery.

On his army record, his father lived at Edgar(?) Cottage in Swinstead and Henry is remembered on the memorial inside the church. Henry had 3 full brothers Frank (1892), Arthur (1897) and Albert Edward (1900).

the 1939 census shows Arthur living with his wife Violet in the School Yard, Swinstead with their son William Henry. We understand they had 4 girls Kathleen (Clarke) of New Estate, Swinstead, Bertha E. (married a Maurice Cross?), Joyce (married a Smith) and Vera (married a Blackbourn?).

There are 4 "officially closed" entries in the census which may indicate that the sisters are still alive. William was killed in an farming accident in 1993 and is buried in Swinstead churchyard.

I wonder if any of readers could help in identifying/contacting any of Henry's relatives and if anyone may have a photograph of him?

He had leave whilst in France and I wonder if he came home to visit the family? The only photo we have of him is on horseback working as a rancher in Canada which he may have sent to his 1/2 sister.

Witham on the Hill WI October 2018

David Mainwaring has been researching the social history of local village Morton in the 16th and 17th century. While studying over 400 documents written on skin with very unusual spelling, David discovered the word for rubbish was trash and a tap was called a forcet. So, the words do not originate from USA as we thought.

We all think we are busy ladies but in a document about husbandry there was a list of what was expected of the females during one day. They had to sweep the house (they had rushes on the floor), milk the animals and then get the children up. They had clothes, bread, butter and cheese to make and hemp and flax to spin and comb. They also had to take the corn to the mill alongside cooking, shopping and laundry.

David explained that Witham on the Hill would be very similar to Morton and there is still a 16th century mud and stud cottage in Haconby today.

A vote of thanks was given by Jane Wilmot. Raffle winners were Frances Plummer, Jill Lessey and Wendy Woolridge. The competition was an ornament of a building - Sue Renner won, Melanie Russ came 2nd and Jean Croft 3rd. In our next meeting we are having Julie Ede to talk to us about Wonderful, wily, wicked Wallis on Tuesday 4th December. All visitors are sure of a warm welcome.

Rub butter into flour, sugar & almonds until coarse crumbs. Put 2/3rds mixture in 8ins square tin - base & sides lined with baking parchment. Press lightly to flatten slightly.
