THE VICAR WRITES

This month sees the Christian Church celebrate the 'Queen of Festivals' – Easter, the Feast of the Resurrection of Jesus. In recent years it has been notable that the number of people making their Communion at Easter has been greater than those at Christmas. There may be many reasons for this but one of them, I judge, is the recognition among those communicant members of the church that Easter is the one day of the year that sets them apart. It is the death and resurrection of Jesus, the celebration of which erupts from the solemnity of Good Friday on Easter Day, that is the source of their faith and hope. The Easter hope is something that has so far eluded commercialisation – unlike Christmas and Mothering Sunday – for two reasons: first, it is about the reality of death; and secondly, to take it seriously would be to encounter the historic claims of the Christian faith concerning the death and resurrection of Jesus of Nazareth - which are far too hot to handle. One little sidelight onto the commercial world's difficulty with Easter is the refusal of some of the big supermarkets (Sainsbury's and Asda) to stock 'The Real Easter Egg' which contains a booklet retelling the Gospel account of Good Friday and Easter.

Behind all this may be the contemporary approach to death. Even in the thirty-five years of my ministry, death has been pushed further to the edge of family and community life. Last November I attended a lecture by Fr John Behr, a Russian Orthodox theologian, titled 'Reclaiming Death'. He outlined the current situation in western societies where 'death' is the dirty word of our time. He came out with some staggering statistics including that in the United States 80% of expenditure in health care is on the last two months of life. So determined are we to delay death that in some cases 'we have to be killed before we can die.' Here are echoes of The Book of Revelation Chapter 9 v5 'they seek after death but do not find it.' He urged his listeners to reclaim death as an organic part of community life and as an essential part of being human. Fr Behr drew our attention to a saying of St Irenaeus of Lyon – ‘Jesus has destroyed death to make it a tool in his hand.’

Some readers will know the verse of Bishop Ken’s Evening Hymn; ‘teach me to live that I may dread the grave as little as my bed, teach me to die that so I may raise glorious at that awful day.’ In our lives we must befriend death.

Bishop Edward King (saintly Bishop of Lincoln 1885-1910) used to advise his flock that a good place to seek renewal in their spiritual life was to visualise their own funeral and then in imagination come back to their own grave once the flowers had begun to fade and wither. The fact of death teaches us to seek ‘those things that last forever.’

One of the spiritual challenges for our generation is not only the reclamation of death in its social context but also to reclaim it as a source of vitality in our spiritual and emotional life. Whether we like it or not we do pick up, and are influenced by, the humanist approach to death. Having attended my cousin’s humanist funeral I could see little difference to what was said and done in some of the modern Anglican rites I have attended recently which deal with death with a saccharine smile and a cloud of platitudes. We now even have funerals without bodies being present!

On Easter Day, Christians renew their Baptismal promises because it is through our Baptism we have died and have risen in Christ. Our Baptism means our life has a different dynamic, focus and end. This should affect profoundly the way we approach life. It means that our life has eternal purpose, that we are more spiritual than physical; that we needn’t be slaves to the absurd pressures of the material and commercial world. It means we are free to pursue the purposes of love through the one who loved us first and gave his life so that we might live for ever.

Lincolnshire Police—Restorative Justice

Lincolnshire Police has a Restorative Justice resolution programme that brings criminals and victims together. There are a number of critics of Restorative Justice, who say it's a soft option and policing on the cheap, but in reality it provides a real voice for victims and an opportunity to influence what should happen to the offender. An impressive 92% of victims, who provided feedback after their offence was dealt with by a restorative resolution in Lincolnshire, stated they would recommend it to others.

Parish Councils have been asked if they wish further information and are invited to request leaflets and/or a Restorative Justice Coordinator to attend a public meeting. Please see the Toft cum Lound and Manthorpe website for more details:

WITHAM-ON-THE-HILL PARISH COUNCIL

Notes of the Meeting on 9 March.

Most of the meeting was concerned with purely routine matters but the following items arose which are perhaps of more general interest:

Motocross. As previously reported, the company which ran the motocross site near to West Farm had been told by SKDC to return the site to its original condition and had appealed against this decision. The appeal has now been considered by the Planning Inspectorate and has been dismissed, subject to one or two small modifications to the original enforcement notice. In effect this means that whilst the shipping containers and lorry trailer may remain on the site as potential field shelters, the land must otherwise be returned to its original condition before 17 August. Until the land is reinstated no use for motocross purposes is permitted. Paradoxically, once the land has been returned to its original agricultural state then use as a motocross site is permitted (under general planning rules) for up to 14 days per year, provided that on each occasion the land is put back to its original state afterwards. In these circumstances the Parish Council thinks that further use of the site for motor racing activities is unlikely and that the outcome of the Appeal is therefore satisfactory.

Meetings. The date of the AGM had been fixed for 11th May but it will be necessary to move this back by a week (in order to fit in with the complicated notice periods in the event of a contested Parish Council election on May 7th). Accordingly the Annual Parish Meeting, the AGM and ordinary meeting of the Parish Council will take place on Monday 18th May in the Village Hall starting at 7.00pm. As usual residents are warmly invited to attend in order to raise any matters of concern which fall within the PC's remit.

A Whist Drive was held on Friday 13th February in the Parish Hall, Witham on the Hill, when £90 was raised for church funds. Winners:

GENTS

1st Mrs.M.Imminck
2nd Mr.G.Templeman
3rd Mr.M.Brace

LADIES

1st Mrs.W.Stratton
2nd Mrs.S.Olley
3rd Mrs.V.Curtis

Raffle winners were Mrs.E.Basdon, Mr.S.Osborne, Mrs.V.Curtis, Mrs.A.Blanchard, Miss E.Munton, Mrs. D.Bennett, Mrs.J.Osborne and Mrs.G.Stanford. Thank you to all those who support us and to everyone who kindly donates a raffle prize - these are always greatly appreciated. The next Whist Drive is on Friday 17th April, which will be the last one until the autumn.

Great British Fish and Chip Supper

Friday 15th May 2015

Want to eat Fish and Chips, while raising money for charity? Hold a fish and chip supper on Friday 15th May 2015 for Spinal Injuries Association.

You can hold a fish and chip supper in your own home, at work or hold a larger supper at your local community centre.

SIA will provide a fundraising pack containing hints and tips, recipes, invitations and donation envelopes. By inviting 7 friends and asking them to donate an additional £5.00 means you will raise at least £35.00 from your supper but we will also give you additional fundraising ideas to raise even more money for SIA.

The money raised from the suppers will help the Spinal Injuries Association offer support to individuals who become paralysed and their families, from the moment a spinal injury occurs.

For more information or request a fundraising pack call Elizabeth Wright on 0845 678 6633 xtn 229 or email fishandchips@spinal.co.uk or visit www.siafishandchips.co.uk

Witham on the Hill WI

Our President welcomed a packed hall of members and visitors - a wonderful attendance. Our speaker, Denise Taylor from Hearing Dogs for the Deaf, was accompanied by her husband and two of the dogs - Bailey has been retired and Vectra a black Labrador of 7 months is in training. Deafness often causes sufferers to become depressed, isolated and lacking in confidence; but when partnered with their hearing dog the transformation is remarkable. This organisation was founded in 1980 by Bruce Fogel, when dogs were selected from rescue centres. Today they have their own breeding programme and the dogs are trained using sign language and this can take up to 2 years, costing thousands of pounds. The animals are retired at the age of 11 and are found suitable homes. The collection of used postage stamps is one way of raising funds and, of course, we can all do this quite easily. The talk was fascinating and Ann Burbidge gave our vote of thanks.

The next walk will be from Whissendine followed by lunch in the same village. The raffle was won by Jane Clark and one of the visitors; with the competition

'picture of a dog' won by Kaye Mundy. Our Annual meeting in April will see the fine offerings of our ladies' craft work with a view to showing items at the display in Sleaford next September. For further information contact Secretary, Jane Clark 01778 590232.

OPEN GARDENS 2015

A DATE FOR YOUR DIARY

28th JUNE 2015

This event is probably the most important in the Parish Hall's calendar for fund raising to help cover maintenance and running costs.

We have previously been able to open more than 10 gardens for this event which has been enjoyed by both local villagers and visitors. It is proposed that we will hold the event this year on Sunday 28th June. We need at least 10 and a maximum of 12 gardens to ensure a great day. We hope that you will be able to open your garden for this important, fun event.

SWINSTEAD PARISH COUNCIL

Correspondence: Nomination Papers and Guidance Packs for the forthcoming Parish Council election were distributed. The Clerk has spare packs should local residents wish to apply. Details of the General, District and Parish elections will be placed on the Notice Board as soon as it becomes available.

Financial Report: The report was presented and agreed.

Highways: Following the Parish Council's request for "Hidden Dip" signs to be sited on the A151 to the west of the Forstedd Hill junction, LCC replied that the solid line road markings are a sufficient indication to drivers not to overtake. They also say that there are no "Hidden Dip" signs in the Highway Code. Parish Councillors have, however, seen Hidden Dip signs in Northamptonshire and will provide photographic evidence.

Road repairs in Park Road have dealt with the problems toward the Swinstead Hall entrance but there remain potholes toward the junction with Bourne Road. LCC will be informed of the unfinished work.

The work requested to the drain at the top of the village has been completed and the adjacent pathway cleared of muddy deposits.

Buttercross: An outline quotation for work to the base of the Buttercross had been received and is greatly in excess of a sum affordable by the Parish Council. A more formal, detailed quotation has been requested and in the meantime letters will be sent to English Heritage and the LCC to ascertain whether grant monies may be applied for, otherwise the project will have to remain unfinished.

Croake Hill: The Parish Council has recently held two liaison meetings with SKDC. Residents are urged to ring 101 as soon as possible if they become aware of any problems in the village and also to report them to SKDC.

Community Wildlife Orchard: The orchard is in good order generally, though some of the smaller trees could do with some feed; the purchase and application of this will be arranged.

Dog Fouling: There have still been some incidents of dog fouling in the Churchyard and residents are asked to report any instances of this practice observed anywhere through the

Memorial Seat at Entrance to Croake Hill: Quotations were examined and, subject to satisfactory physical inspection of a sample in hard wood, the seat will be ordered.

The Notice Board will be examined as it requires some refurbishment.

Councillors' Reports: A letter of thanks is to be written to Community Cleaners who picked up litter along the A151 and approaches to the village. Items disposed of included two TV sets and a mattress which had been fly-tipped. Following recent hedge cutting, a great deal of litter was exposed along the verges around Forstedd Hill. Enquiries are to be instigated to ascertain whether the Parish Council could appoint a Community Cleaner on a retaining contract for around £100 p.a. to keep the village and the approach roads in tidy condition. District Councillor Robins noted that similar initiatives at Corby Glen and South Witham have been successful.

TRAVELLING BY TRAIN

I have recently travelled from Peterborough to Edinburgh to spend Christmas with my son and daughter-in-law. I had not travelled the east coast line for a number of years, so memories were of that time. For this recent journey, I was advised to travel first class, and for the small extra cost it proved to be worthwhile. The service at Peterborough and on the train was good with the extra space each individual was given. The journey went very quickly, helped along by the smoothness of the train, and by my willingness to talk to my travelling companions, if they wished to respond and join in. The lady sitting opposite me was willing to talk. I soon learned a lot about her, her family, what they did, why she was travelling on that particular day and on the same train as me. On the other side of the aisle was another lady. Again, in a brief chat across the aisle, I learnt why she was where she was on the same day.

Over the next few days I reflected on my earliest memories of train travel. The first train journeys I remember were back in the 1950s, going back and forth from my home in Spalding, to school near Bury St Edmunds (no, we will not have the old joke!). Then once I had left school using the train to travel at weekends home from my first job in March in the Isle of Ely. All of these trains had steam locomotives and sometimes non-corridor coaches. Journey times were longer, stopping at stations and starting again took time, much noise, smoke, smell, and spinning of wheels on the track. Also, I have to admit, I was a train spotter in my younger days!

My recent journey reflects the progress made in train travel, in the march forward of technology. We have seen the advance of technology in many fields. For the present generation, it is part of today's life. For those of us of a certain age, it can race us by on the other side, leaving us breathless. Or we can try to keep up with this progress but find we don't necessarily have the energy. Today is for the present generation. Those generations yet to come could well leave the present generation in the same position that my generation finds itself in, looking back to what used to be.

Back to my conversation on that train journey. Not so many years ago it would have been improper for a gentleman to talk to a lady. It would have been considered very forward, especially a lady you did not know or to whom you had not been introduced. Is this willingness to make conversation with strangers progress? I leave the answer to you!

Fr David

War Brides: Promise and Sacrifice
An Exhibition to run from 6th May to 3rd June to coincide with the 70th

Anniversary of VE Day.

Maureen McCormick, the American artist daughter of war bride Elsie Grocock of Swinstead, tells her mother's story in paint. She is portraying the loneliness of the war bride in her new surroundings – the experience of isolation and of caring for families without the support of others. The effacement of her own family, her own past, her own previous self is the subject of many of these works. Many of the women depicted are without a face. They had no voice, no real presence in historical narratives of the war and yet were strong enough to raise daughters who developed their own voices. They are, in a sense, erased because they gave everything to their children.

A Clothesline - a poem on the past

(sent to us by a former resident—thanks Garry)

A clothesline was a news forecast, To neighbours passing by,
There were no secrets you could keep,
When clothes were hung to dry.
It also was a friendly link, For neighbours always knew
If company had stopped on by, To spend a night or two.

For then you'd see the "fancy sheets", And towels upon the line;
You'd see the "company table cloths", With intricate designs.
The line announced a baby's birth, From folks who lived inside,
As brand new infant clothes were hung, So carefully with pride!

The ages of the children could, So readily be known
By watching how the sizes changed, You'd know how much they'd grown!

It also told when illness struck, As extra sheets were hung;
Then nightclothes, and a bathrobe too, Haphazardly were strung.

It also said, "On HOLIDAY now", When lines hung limp and bare.

It told, "We're back!" when full lines sagged, With not an inch to spare!
New folks in town were scorned upon, If wash was dingy and grey,
As neighbours carefully raised their brows, And looked the other way.

But clotheslines now are of the past, For dryers make work much less.
Now what goes on inside a home, Is anybody's guess!

I really miss that way of life, It was a friendly sign
When neighbours knew each other best... By what hung on the line.
